

Beaumont Cross Inn

Restaurant with Rooms

Specially Selected Wines

13 London Road
Newark-on-Trent
NG24 1TN

01636 703670

Collin Bourisset

At the crossroads of Burgundy and Beaujolais, in Crêches sur Saône, lies the rolling estate of Collin Bourisset.

As one of the oldest and most reputable houses in Beaujolais, Collin Bourisset is known for producing some of the rarest wines from the best vineyards in the area.

Their goal has always been to extract the finest Beaujolais and Mâconnais wines from the region to bring out the true excellence of French wine. Each of their wines are selected with extreme care, to protect the identity of the soil and the authenticity of every Bourisset vintage.

History

The story of Collin Bourisset began in 1821, where its unique location allowed the estate to source grapes from the best vineyards in the surrounding area. Soon, the name Collin Bourisset became synonymous with the production of some of the rarest wines in France.

Throughout the years, the Bourisset estate has maintained this reputation. Particularly when, in 1922, it became the exclusive distributors of the acclaimed “King of Cru Beaujolais”—Hospices de Romanèche Moulin a Vent.

Today, Collin Bourisset’s single grape wines are renowned for being some of the best of their kind. The skill and experience of the winery is known to capture the essence of each vineyard’s terroir, allowing the quality of the grape to shine through to create truly exceptional wines.

Above: The Vineyards of Collin Bourisset

Below: Sauvignon Blanc

Bourisset's vines

White

125ml 175ml 250ml bottle

Sauvignon Blanc

£5.25 £6.50 £7.50 £22.50

Aromatic, crisp pear, apple and peach flavours are bright and lively, yet still remain soft and juicy on the palate. Well-balanced and refreshing, with a delicate acidity and bright 'medium-dry' finish. There's no oak either, just a pure, refined expression of the grape.

Chardonnay

£22.50

Surprisingly rich brioche, apple, peach and lemon flavours are expressed on a palate with incredible depth and butteriness. Great balance of acidity and natural ripe white fruit depth – soft, indulgent and sophisticated.

Red

125ml 175ml 250ml bottle

Merlot

£5.25 £6.50 £7.50 £22.50

Youthful and fresh, bursting with rich, soft, red fruit. Velvety smooth and round, this wine possesses astonishing quality for wine of this price, beautifully showcasing the uncomplicated, soft freshness of the Merlot grape as expressed by the Languedoc terroir.

Finca Garabellos

Notas Frutales de Albariño is located in Tea County, D.O. Rias Baixas. They farm 13 hectares of their own vineyards, planted between 200-350 m. altitude, on the right bank of the river Miño. The vines have an average age of 25 years (more than 50 years old in some vineyards).

The vines are planted on trell, which allows them better aeration, thus avoiding the concentration of humidity, while the plant benefits from a greater foliar surface exposed to the sun, which leads to optimum maturation of the grape.

Being an inland area, the Atlantic winds here are attenuated, whilst still allowing the grape to develop salinity. The harvest is done manually, with a first selection of grapes in the field and its transfer in aerated boxes of 16 kg maximum, to preserve integrity.

The vineyards are within a radius of less than 3 km. from the winery, allowing the grapes to arrive whole and in the best condition, making the second selection process upon arrival. After destemming and pressing the grapes, in a pneumatic press, the must is transferred to stainless steel tanks where cold fermentation takes place, in order to preserve all the aromatic potential. Once the fermentation is finished, the wine stays with its fine lees between 3 and 6 months.

White

Albariño 'Finca Garabellos' £43.95

A complex, fresh wine with citrus, apricot, white flowers and candied nectarine on the nose. Stone fruit, pineapple and a good citrus bite from grapefruit, alongside a good line of minerality. Really well balanced, finishes long and complex.

Above: The vineyards
Below: Albarino

Some Young Punks

Some Young Punks produces some stand-out wines – inside and out. Known for their striking pop art labels, the punks were on the front of the packaging revolution in Australia and always thought differently about how to package their wines. With their punk attitude to winemaking, Colin McBryde, Jen Gardner and Nic Bourke make wines with charisma and attitude. “Each time we make a wine”, they say, “it may be the last wine we make – and if it isn’t worthy of being the last then it will never wear the Some Young Punks name.”

Their contemporary approach means minimal use of oak and short ferments to retain maximum punchy vibrancy. The creative trio believe it’s okay to judge these books by their covers, which are as bright and bold as the wines they clothe.

Red

‘Naked on Roller Skates’ Shiraz £30.95
Expressive notes of musk, violets and charcuterie meats. The palate is dense with black fruits, a little quince and juniper spice.

White

‘Quickie’ Sauvignon Blanc £30.95
Generous, upfront and fruity with more crispness and minerality than is all too often lacking in Australian Sauvignons. None of the sweatiness but plenty of grip and liveliness on the tight finish.

Above: Pop Art Labels
Below: Shiraz / Mataro

Azienda Rechsteiner

The Rechsteiner Estate is located close to the ancient town of Piavon di Oderzo. Found in the heart of the Venetian countryside, the beautiful estate is managed by Florian von Stepski-Doliwa—the great, great grandson of founder, Friedrich Rechsteiner.

Rechsteiner believes the beauty of a fine wine is in part created by environmental and social responsibility. Florian is dedicated to creating the highest quality wine from his vines with sustainability to protect the lands for future generations.

History

The Rechsteiner Estate has 45 hectares of luscious vineyards, situated in one of the most fertile DOC Venezia regions.

The rich history of this estate began in 1881 when the founder, Friedrich Rechsteiner, took ownership of the grounds and its 17th century villas from Count Revedin. The grand villa is hidden amongst a romantic park which also houses the ancient Rechsteiner winery.

The story of this winery is written in the beautiful marmorino on its walls. Originally, the building stood as a warehouse for a Venetian aristocratic family before housing the Austro-Hungarian cavalry during WWI.

From the ancient winery, grapes are vinified to bring out the varietal characteristics of every single grape. For their infamous vintage wines, the winery hand-select certain grapes and allow them to mature in oak barrels, giving every bottle unique and distinguishing characteristics.

Above: Florian von Stepski-Doliwa, owner
Below: Pinot Grigio

The Rechsteiner Winery

White

125ml 175ml 250ml bottle

Pinot Grigio

£5.25 £6.50 £7.50 £22.50

Grapes harvested and hand-picked from the winery's own vineyards guarantee character and elegance, whilst the 'DOC' classification affords prestige, and ensures class. Vivid aromas of acacia flowers, apple and pear evolve into a crisp and refreshing palate, then a fruity, light and fragrant finish.

Sparkling

bottle

Prosecco Spumante

£24.95

A fresh straw yellow in the glass with a delicate, natural mousse. Peach, melon, apple and spring flower aromas show on the nose. Delicate acidity uplifts the soft orchard fruit.

Spumante Rosé

£25.95

This wine is a bright pink in colour with an elegant bouquet of red fruits and rose petals. The palate has a creamy mousse with notes of redcurrants, raspberries and delicate floral notes.

Domaine Uby

Descended from a generation of Swiss wine growers who arrived in France in 1920 and from a line of wine makers from the Armagnac region, François Morel has ensured the expansion of the family estate for 10 years with his straightforward approach and his dynamism. Domaine Uby are now regarded as one of the most popular and successful estates in Gascony, albeit not really outside of France.

He expresses his passion through his wines: pleasing wines of quality, convivial wines for sharing which perfectly match the image of the wines and the region of Gascony.

A new winery was constructed in 2012 to assure the security and the development of the Estate. It was designed to ally expertise with technical skill, from wine making to the maturing process and on to the storage and packaging of the wines.

The grapes are harvested at night when fully mature, with harvesting protection. Skin maceration, inert pneumatic pressing (protected from oxygen), fermentation at low temperature, maturing on fine lees, blending and storing in thermo-regulated tanks.

The entire UBY vineyard has been certified 'Viticulture Raisonnée Contrôlée' for 10 years. Cereal crops on the estate, as well as the 12 hectares of vines are grown organically.

Above: François Morel, owner
Below: Colombar / Ugni Blanc'

White

bottle

Colombard / Ugni Blanc

£26.95

Ugni blanc is the grape mainly used in the distillation of brandy, specifically Cognac. Blending it with the fragrant, floral Colombard grape was a risk. However, this wine is simply delicious. Light in alcohol (it's 11.5%), the wine bursts with grapefruit and tropical fruit. Dangerously moreish, everyone who tries this wine loves it!

Red

bottle

Merlot / Tannat

£26.95

The pale ruby color and the quite intense (medium-plus) aromas of fresh red fruits makes this a very typical merlot. Light body, low in tannins and with medium acidity, it has a pleasant palate of strawberries, red cherries and sour cherries with a lengthy after-taste.

Rose

bottle

Uby Rosé

£26.95

With its raspberry and strawberry aromas equally present on the nose and palate, this rosé is more than indulgent. It is a real delight of freshness. Another brilliant blend of four different red grape by Domaine Uby, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon.

Masseria Liveli

It's safe to say that Masseria Li Veli is on a fast trajectory to be one of the top estates in Southern Italy." - Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate.

Masseria Li Veli is located on an ancient Messapian site dominating the fertile and sunny Salento plain in Puglia, the heel of Italy. It was founded by the Marquis Antonio de Viti de Marco (1858-1943). An aristocrat and highly educated economist and politician, de Marco was also an enlightened farmer and landowner. Spending time in the United States exposed him to new ideas and methods; he returned to Italy with hopes of bringing new practices and wealth to his native land. His ideas and estate soon became inspiration for all Southern Italians.

More recently, Li Veli was purchased by the Falvo family in 1999 (owners of the hugely prestigious Avignonesi winery in Tuscany) following 40 years of experience in the wine business. The combination of old wine-making methods with modern equipment used on an ancient site results in the perfect balance between history and innovation. The estate is now certified organic.

Vineyards are planted in a settonce, a pattern invented by Roman military engineers allowing for optimum levels of planting density, soil exploitation for the vine roots, exposure to the sun, circulation of air, cultivation and plant growth. Hand-picked grapes are literally minutes from cutting to selection with everything being done on the premises. Stainless steel and new French oak barriques are filled with traditional native varietals, including Negroamaro, Primitivo and Susumaniello - stored using the most modern and innovative vinification techniques to ensure the highest quality wines.

Above: Li Veli's cellars
Below: Susumaniello

Red

bottle

Susumaniello 'Askos'

£36.95

"A fantastic bargain deal, the Susumaniello Askos offers a great taste of one of Puglia's break-out indigenous grapes. The variety with the singsongy name delivers loads of luscious red fruit with cherry and blueberry in pole position. Askos sees nine months of oak and those added notes of spice, tobacco and leather are well integrated within the greater fleshiness of the grape. The finish shows light touches of cola, balsam herb and licorice. If you've never tried Susumaniello, Askos is a great place to start." Robert Parker 91

White

bottle

Verdeca 'Askos'

£36.95

The 2018 Verdeca is flat-out beautiful. Layers of floral infused yellow stone fruits, flowers, mint and licorice are all woven together in this striking, highly expressive white. This is a dazzling effort." Robert Parker 91

Rose

bottle

Susumaniello Rosato 'Askos'

£36.95

Pale pink, crystal and bright; elegant bouquet, persistent and aromatic notes of strawberry and cranberry. Light weight in the mouth with waves of flavor across the palate. Savory finish with a touch of acidity.

Bodega Raffy

Bodega Raffy was built from the ground up by the Raffy family in the province of Mendoza.

Manager, Jean-Louis Raffy, has the ambition to reveal the Argentinian Malbec's fullest potential. In the Valley of Tupungato, the growers tenderly care for vines with agricultural methods that are suited to the land.

The region's weather conditions give the vineyards a natural protection from pests, allowing Raffy to cultivate without using any chemicals or pesticides.

History

The Bodega and its vineyard were founded in 2007 by Frenchman, Jean-Louis Raffy. When he constructed the 8.5 hectare estate, he installed the French philosophy that great wine is made from a combination of climate, terroir and a grape that is well adapted to its natural environment.

To ensure Bodega Raffy's wines are regarded as some of the best in Argentina, the family are guided by the expertise of world-renowned winemaker Marcelo Pelleriti (Chateau Pavie).

Every harvest is hand picked, with a focus on finding the healthiest grapes which have reached their perfect maturity. The vineyard limits their production to 100,000 bottles, allowing the estate to work only with the finest-quality grapes.

Aswell as its own vineyard planted with Malbec, Bodega Raffy also manages some high quality parcels of old vines in neighbouring properties. These vineyards are extremely rare for Argentina as they are at least 50 years of age, making them of particular importance for the Raffy estate.

Above: The Raffy family
Below: Malbec Cuvee terroir

Raffy's Winery

Red

bottle

Malbec Cuvee Terroir

£29.95

"First come the dark plums and black cherries, with a prickling spice breaking up the initial lushness of the bouquet. A note of oak derived cedar is subtle. Dry and medium bodied, dark plums, boysenberry and damson are the primary dark fruit flavours, with anise and black pepper providing interest and complexity that shows through the ripe and concentrated fruit." Independent Wine Review

Spain | Ribera

Camino Soria

The very existence of Camino Soria is the the realisation of a dream. Jose Luis Sanz, previously an aeronautical engineer, left his successful career as Marketing Director in a large multinational company to pursue his passion, to develop a great wine from his own land, Soria, located in Ribera del Duero, in Central Spain. Then, after becoming Master in Oenology and Viticulture at the Polytechnic University of Madrid, he created a unique wine from a calcareous-limestone vineyard placed in Soria, formed from clones of the indigenous Tempranillo grape, resulting in the highest, most authentic expression of terroir.

Produced in limited editions of less than 10.000 bottles per vintage, and aged in new oak barrels for more than 15 months.

The Tempranillo grapes, referred to locally as 'Tinta del Pais,' are perfectly adapted to the hard conditions of the land. Camino Soria's logo - two warriors fighting - expresses the resistant character of the grape, fighting to survive in the extreme weather conditions of the area, over 35 degrees Celsius during the day and as low as 5 degrees Celsius overnight in the maturity period. The brand represents the Celtiberian warriors who lived in the area in the 3rd century BC, who fought defending their land from the Roman Empire's expansion.

Red

Ribera del Duero Crianza

£37.95

Cherry red in color, the wine is clean and bright. It shows aromas of black fruits, balsamic notes, and roasted aromatic spices as a result of his ageing in good wood. The palate is full of finesse, balanced and smooth, showing more cherry along with blackberries, sweet plums, and oak-derived vanilla nuances.

Above: Vineyards

Below: Ribera

Champagne Cazals

Carte or Grand Cru

£49.95

Maison Claude Cazals is in the legendary Grand Cru town of Le Mesnil-sur-Oger and is one of the very few estates in Champagne to have a 'clos' (or walled vineyard). It is very particular due to its exposure and geological makeup, and was enclosed by stone walls many years ago to create a kind of micro-climate. Insecticides are not and have never been used. Elegant, balanced, dense, mineral-rich and ripe Champagnes are crafted. (Bollinger and Deutz purchase grapes from the estate).

Crystal clear and lively - the vibrancy of this energetic Champagne comes from a lively blend of fleshy white fruit and perfect citrus balance. This exuberance evolves into a mature palate of brioche, honey, lemon and hazelnut flavours. This Champagne is subtle, deep and complex, rich yet weightless.

Grand Cru Rosé

£54.95

This harmonious, yet complex Champagne exudes aromas of upfront strawberry and raspberry. The vivacious mousse is crisp and feisty. Made from the classy combination of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, it's medium-bodied while creamy on the mid-palate leading to a long finish with crisp red fruit notes.

Above: Delphine Cazals

Below: Grand Cru Rosé

Anne-Sophie Dubois

Anne-Sophie Dubois is part of a new generation of rising star vigneron in Beaujolais. Based in the heart of Fleurie, Anne-Sophie's wines epitomize delicacy and finesse, with a style and approach aligned with the Gamay grown in the area. Having learned winemaking in Volnay, she draws from her experience there to lovingly craft elegant wines; full of depth and aromatic complexity, and without the over-extraction of fruit.

The economics of vineyard ownership in France have made many regions unapproachable for a young vigneron without a considerable amount of wealth. Beaujolais is one of the few where that is not yet the case. Anne-Sophie fell in love with Gamay and decided that Fleurie was where she wanted to call home. Her domaine is composed of eight hectares in the heart of Fleurie that are now organically farmed. Most of her plots are already of considerable age; the oldest are over 60 years old.

If Fleurie has provided Anne-Sophie a canvas of old vines and granitic soils, she brings to the table a strong commitment to working the soil, staying out of the way in the winery, and a style that favors a Burgundian approach to vinification over carbonic maceration.

Red

Fleurie

£36.95

"Brilliant magenta. Fresh and energetic in style, showing excellent clarity and lift to the fresh raspberry, cherry and spicecake aromas. Palate-staining red fruit and floral pastille flavors are sharpened by a suggestion of white pepper. Deftly plays depth off vivacity and finishes very long and nervy, leaving a sweet red berry note behind." 91 Josh Reynolds - Vinous Media

Above: Anne-Sophie Dubois
Below: Fleurie 'Les Cocottes'

Simonsig

Named after the majestic views of the Simonsberg Mountain, Simonsig Estate is situated in the famous Stellenbosch Winelands just east of Cape Town. Since French Huguenot Jacques Malan first set foot in the cape in 1688, the Malan family's wine knowledge accumulated over many generations, has equipped them to excel as one of the leading private producers of estate wines in South Africa.

The late Frans Malan, beloved patriarch of the Malan Family and one of the pioneers of the South African wine industry, was not only a craftsman of superior wines, but also introduced numerous Simonsig 'firsts' cementing the estate's stately legacy in the Cape Winelands. He was also a co-founder of the Stellenbosch Wine routes.

The Malan Family

White

bottle

Chenin Blanc

£24.95

Full bodied Chenin Blanc. The tropical Flavours of this bright straw coloured wine leaps from the glass. On the nose the wine shows intense tropical fruit salad flavours, with beautiful hints of apricot, ripe pears and kiwi fruit. On the palate it shows freshness with a natural acidity, intense fruit flavours and a lingering, fresh finish.

Chenin Blanc

Trentham Estate (Murphy's)

This family-owned, boutique winery is set right on the banks of the Murray River at Trentham Cliffs, just outside Mildura. The Murphy family arrived in Australia in 1909 from Ireland and so are numbered among the Irish "Winegeese" who, from the 18th century onwards, engaged in the wine trade in the countries of their adoption and were instrumental in the viticultural development of some of the finest wine-growing areas of the world. Today, the many and illustrious wines and labels of the Winegeese have become synonymous with quality on the international market.

Trentham's winery has been operating since 1988, where it has grown from the initial 30 tonne crush to a minimal but state-of-the-art facility handling up to 5,000 tonnes of top quality grapes each vintage. It allows the flexibility to perform different winemaking styles, resulting in the diverse and always consistent Trentham Estate wines. Today, Anthony is assisted with the making of Trentham's wines by winemakers Shane Kerr and Mark Holm, along with a dedicated team of cellar and laboratory staff. The winemaking philosophy at Trentham Estate has always been to produce high-quality, monovarietal wines at an affordable price, with an emphasis on full fruit flavour and enjoyment.

The Trentham Estate

Red

	125ml	175ml	250ml	bottle
Shiraz	£5.25	£6.50	£7.50	£22.50

This is an appealing New World Shiraz, It has a bright, vibrant colour with ripe berry aromas and a soft fruity finish combined with subtle spice.

Shiraz

Albert Bescombes

The story began in 1872, in Saint Hilaire Saint Florent, near Saumur. The wine merchant and producer Albert Bescombes built up a set of skills and expertise which proved to be unique in the world of wine, and quickly rose to prominence in the Loire Valley and around the world.

Over the years, the company expanded its presence in the wine region through historic partnerships, often with winemakers who had been in the region for generations. Thanks to this organization, Loire Propriétés could expand its range to cover all the appellations in the Loire, from Muscadet to Sancerre.

What's more, their historic, Eiffel-built building is made from the locally renowned tufa stone. Albert Bescombes champions a proud local history, a historic building, passionate men and women, and the experience to produce wines from the finest appellations in the Loire.

The Bescombes Cellars

Rosé

	125ml	175ml	250ml	bottle
--	-------	-------	-------	--------

Loire Rosé	£5.25	£6.50	£7.50	£22.50
------------	-------	-------	-------	--------

This pretty rosé is made in the Loire Valley. It has a salmon pink colour, and delivers delicious nuances of red fruits and spring flowers.

Loire Rosé

Specially Selected Wines

The purity, vibrancy and sheer authenticity of the wines we serve here led to the writing of this booklet.

Many of our wine-growers have stories and history that deserve to be shared. From Pinot Grigio made by Azienda Rechsteiner, a family who used their winery to house the Austro-Hungarian army's cavalry in the First World War, to a white wine made from the grape used in Cognac by Domaine Uby, all our wines are sourced from a prestigious importer who mainly supply Michelin-starred restaurants across the country, Philip von Nell Wines of Nottingham.

We've listed the bottle prices here, but all are also available by the case, delivered direct, please ask at reception.

A discretionary 10% service charge will be added to your bill.

Family Owned Restaurant with Rooms

The Beaumont Cross Inn has been owned and run by Paul Chambers and his family since 2010. The building is Grade Two listed and sits in the heart of historic Newark and Trent. Having been carefully restored and refurbished, it now boasts en-suite bedrooms maintained to a hotel standard, a homely bar and restaurant serving locally sourced fresh food.

For best rates, availability and to book phone 01636 703670 or via www.beaumontcrossinn.co.uk

The Beaumont Cross Inn , 13 London Road, Newark-on-Trent, NG24 1TN